

The Fourth Grade News

Nov. 2-6

Dear Families,

The class did a great job on their Animal Projects. We have all learned much from the in-class presentations. Our next book report for November is to be a Christian biography and the project is a book jacket and a report. This is due on Nov.30th. It is included in the Monday packet. The report is to be 5 paragraphs about the biography your student has chosen. I am encouraging the class to look for a book in the Library this week.

I am also sending home the last book order from Scholastic Books for this year. We will resume after Christmas break. Please have the orders in by the 20th

Thank you families for all the ingredients for our pumpkin bread cooking. We didn't have any trouble eating it all up. Thank you also to the drivers for the field trip. It was a great experience!

I am sending home the slips with conference times. If the time I scheduled you will not work for you, please call the office to reschedule.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Aram

This week we will focus on:
