

Dear Parents...

June 7, 2010

It's hard to believe, but this is my final letter to you—this year has flown by so quickly!! When I work with your children and observe the growth physically & mentally, I know it's true—this year of Kindergarten is coming to an end and they are ready to move on.

Thank you all so very much for all your help, kindness, support, and words of encouragement over the past school year—also all the snacks and fun surprises you've provided. I could not have done the job without you. It's been a joy and a privilege to work with your child. Thanks, also, to our room moms—Kim Brown, Kelley Hawkins and Lisa Mills for all the extra time spent and extra things done for our class this year!! And...one last thank you to Lisa Mills, Angela Cooper and Erin Henry for all the help on Friday Fun Day. And yeah!! for Room A...we won the 1st place ribbons in our division!!...We're the PURPLE PENGUINS...We might be...

Kinda small, not so tall...but winning B – I – G !!...Goooo, Penguins!!

I hope you will continue to read and work together with your child over the summer so that minds are kept focused and they are ready to enjoy first grade. We are sending home our last bag of projects—this one with not only our final art projects but also a full representation of our writing throughout the year. We've tried to put this into a format which will be easy to keep and available to enjoy and compare over the years.

Our final Bible lesson this week is a continuation from last week:

Jesus Sends His Disciples into the World with a Commission and Comforting Promise

We'll continue to practice using our "Wordless Book" ...also the "Full Armor"

Our final Bible Memory verse is: Matthew 28:20

"And surely I will be with you always, to the very end of the age."

Tuesday & Wednesday: NO NEED FOR BACKPACKS—just kids ready for First Grade!! There will be no hot lunch. Please have your child bring a lunch on Monday & Tuesday if they are to be in day care after school.

No daycare on Wednesday...it's over!!

MONDAY morning will be the Dale Dullabaun, III memorial award ceremony on the back playground.

TUESDAY morning will be our last Chapel with awards & Sixth grade graduation speeches.

MONDAY and TUESDAY: 12:30 dismissal with parent conferencing—see schedule on door.

On WEDNESDAY, our last day, we're having an end-of-the-year Mickey Mouse pancake breakfast party at 9:00. This will be followed by class awards and then a special performance at 11:00 in the Chapel before our final good-byes and 12:30 (and final!) dismissal.

Have a wonderful summer! I will miss you all but pray God's best for you and your family in the future. Hopefully I will see many of you next year!—and if not...please come and visit!!

With much love,

Mrs. Wiseman
