Dear Students and Parents,

It has arrived – the last week of school! Today through Wednesday are all minimum days, ending at 12:30. Wednesday there will not be day care, so please remember to be on time to pick up your student. Please bring a backpack to school each day so that you have something to carry your things home in.

Today and tomorrow you have a conference scheduled with me. The original purpose of this conference was to discuss your child's Stanford test scores. We were informed Friday that the scores will not arrive until later this week. Your scores will be mailed to you and we will use our conference time to discuss the year and your child's report card.

It has been a wonderful year! Thank you for allowing me to be a part of your child's life, and thank you for being a great support. May God bless you and have a wonderful summer ☺

Much love,

Mrs. Dawn Caban
