

Dear Parents,

September 7, 2010

Welcome to the first week of school. It was a pleasure meeting all of the new students today. This week we will be settling and adapting to our curriculum. Tonight we will be having Back-to-School Night. I hope to see you here. Below is a list of subjects and lesson plans we will be covering this week. Please read attached letter for this week's homework assignment. It will be due this Friday. This Friday we will be having our first oral Bible verse test. We also will have a Phonics quiz on Chart 10. Study guide is attached. I welcome all of you to join me Sunday, September 12th at the 10:00 a.m. service at Granada Hills Baptist Church when the school staff will be dedicated for the new school year.

Bible- The Bible is God's word.

Phonics- Review Chart 10 and review short vowels.

Math- Addition concepts, related addition facts, and count on to add.

Spelling- We will start next week.

Reading- We will begin to read our first book entitled, Story Tree.

Map skills- We will begin to learn about our seven continents and oceans.

Grammar- Introduce compound words.

Cursive- Review manuscript writing of short vowel sounds.

Bible Verse- "Thy word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path"

Homework- Paper bag project and oral Bible verse due Friday. Phonics quiz on Chart 10 on Friday.

Thank You, Mrs. Zeichick & Miss Vanasse
